THIRTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Nov. 16, 2008

When we play small, however moral & noble the intent, another part of us begins to enrage. Why? Because what we are doing fundamentally belies who we are. We are in the image of God, special, unique, fabulous, gorgeous, talented. When that part of us, is bullied by a good moral idea gone awry (humility gone false) it does not acquiesce in calm and serenity.
