TWENTY-SEVENTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Oct. 5, 2008

This week in the gospel Jesus has become the story. He is to be rejected & killed, just as the prophets & the owner's son were. He is the son who is entirely willing to go out among the sinning people. His life is motivated by compassion, so he willingly goes into the danger. God sent his own son into the trap of human life not because life is perfect, but because love is.
