TWENTY-SIXTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Sept. 28, 2008

On the one hand, our initial response to God's call in our lives does not determine everything from that point forward. If we say no but later follow God's will, our actions will count, not our words. On the other hand, we have to take our words seriously. It is easy to say we love God, but if we do not put that into action, then our words are empty.
