FIFTH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY

Feb. 8, 2009

If faith is real, it seeks expression. It will communicate & profess. It will have the energy of passion. But faith cannot be real for us if it is not allowed into our real world. A Christ who is squeezed into a pew may feel cozy, but the relationship will soon tire & confine. We first find Jesus leaving the synagogue to enter into the midst of human intimacies - friends, community & family. He walks & abides with comrade-apostles & their in-laws. There he is found. He inhabits relationship.
