CONVERSION OF PAUL

Jan. 25, 2009

Paul's missionary activities were not one success story after another. With deep faith he carried a conviction in his heart of Jesus' saving power and love for him. As baptized Christians we, too, have been designated to hear and to spread the message of Jesus. We are each different kinds of vessels, but we can respond with Paul's generosity and trust. "What do you want me to do?" Then, with Paul's confidence, we can believe that witnessing to a life of faith will also unite us with Jesus.
