THIRTIETH SUNDAY OF ORDINARY TIME

Oct. 24/25, 2009

In the Gospel Bartimaeus summons a courage and yells to Jesus "Son of David, have pity on me!" Jesus doesn't ask for fear or virtue. He doesn't demand righteousness or rectitude. He simply asks, "What do you want me to do for you?" In every blindness we may have, may we, begging for pity, bring it to the One before whom we have "nothing to fear." May we have nothing other to offer than our faith. May our hope surmount our fear. And may he say to us, thank God, "What do you want me to do for you?"
