FOURTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 25, 2010

God's voice in this world is never coercive or overbearing in any way, but is always an invitation & a beckoning that respects you and your freedom in a way that no human institution or person ever does. God's voice is thoroughly underwhelming, like a baby's presence. God's voice judges by shining love & light into all those places where we find ourselves huddled in fear, shame, bitterness, hostility and sin.
