THIRD SUNDAY OF EASTER

April 18, 2010

Jesus reminds Peter that love is the main condition of discipleship. Three times Peter professes his love, and three times Jesus reminds him that his love will demand caring for others. Jesus' final words to Peter also remind us that as we follow Jesus, we will be led in ways that we might not want to go - but these will be the ways that we will need to go to be his faithful
