33RD ANNUAL NASH MEMORIAL LECTURE - The New Physics & the Old Metaphysics delivered by guest lecturer Br. Guy Consolmagno, SJ, PhD. Br. Consolmagno will examine the argument that science can replace the need for God, and the questions it raises about our understanding of the nature of God and the relationship between science & theology. This is scheduled for Thurs., Feb. 2 at 7:30 p.m. at Campion College, University of Regina. More info - www.campioncollege.ca 586-4242.

A REMINDER:

It makes sense... "Reduced Scents" for the benefit of those sensitive to fragrances, please reduce or eliminate your use of scented products before coming to church.

4th SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Jan. 29, 2012

On the night before he died, Jesus sat down with his disciples and what he found there was what we too find whenever we go to church, a sincere bunch of people struggling to not let the jealousies, irritations, self-preoccupations and wounds of life drive them apart. We come to church and to the Eucharist to ask God to do for us what we cannot do for ourselves, love each other.

Thursday, Feb. 2nd is WORLD DAY OF CONSECRATED PERSONS

This is a day particularly to thank God for those in our faith communities who have consecrated themselves to God in the Religious Life and varied Secular Institutes. Therefore at 7 p.m., Thursday, Feb. 2nd, Hogan Rm. Franciscan Brother Gerry Klyne the Guardian with the Franciscan Friary at St. Michael's Retreat House will come to share with us about consecrated life in the church. In the church we are enabled to learn how God working in the life and calling of any one of us bears gifts of wisdom, encouragement and teaching for the rest of us. We will begin and end with some form of prayer. Consider joining with others to welcome Brother Gerry; to hear his Witness while thanking God for how God is working in your life. The usual Spiritual Life/Scripture and prayer gathering will occur within this event. For more information kindly contact Kevin Krofchek (Spiritual Life) at 757-1351.
