THIRTY- THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Nov. 17, 2007

Today's gospel, challenges us to endeavour to see & serve God both in the temple when we gather for worship and in one another after the worship. Remember, we treat the other person with respect & dignity not because they deserve it by their own conduct but because God in them deserves it. This way, our lives both in church & out of church, become one continuous act of service to the same God who dwells in the human soul as well as in the temple.
