

St. Cecilia Parish Holy Week 2007

Holy Thursday 6:30 pm

Just as Jesus washed his disciples feet, you are invited to participate (call Maureen Dumonceaux by Tuesday).

April 3, 6 pm, 545-8389) The new Chrism oils will be presented by parishioners who attended the Chrism Mass in Gravelbourg on March 26. Today's offering is for Development & Peace. Use the blue envelope in your box, or the special ones at the church for your Share Lent gift. After the Eucharist, the Blessed Sacrament is transferred to the Altar of Repose. The church will remain open until midnight for anyone who wishes to spend time in prayer.

Good Friday 3:00 pm

The church will open at 8 am for those who wish to spend quiet time reflecting on Jesus and His sacrifice. The church will be darkened and you are asked to enter and leave in silence in respect for this solemn day and for those spending time in prayer.

We venerate the Cross by genuflecting, touching and/or kissing it. Today's collection is for the Needs of the Church in the Holy Land. Contributions help with repair and upkeep of sacred shrines in Israel. They also assist Christians associated with the Mother Church in Jerusalem who bear witness to the Gospel through difficult economic and political times.

Holy Saturday, April 7

10-11 am – Reconciliation - Fr. J.B. will be available in the Reconciliation Room

Easter Vigil 8:00 pm

St. Peter's (100 Argyle St)

Easter fire, Paschal candle procession, special readings, bell ringing Gloria, Liturgy of Baptism, Renewal of Baptismal Promises, Liturgy of Eucharist, Solemn Blessing. Please attend to help welcome our newly-initiated Catholic neighbours into the Church (bring a bell to ring in the Gloria).

Easter Sunday April 8 at 11 am

Bring your bells for ringing during the Gloria. We renew our baptismal promises and witness the blessing of the new water. Infant baptism of Kendra Jo-ann Privé is planned. You are invited to take some new Holy Water home.

The season of Easter continues for 50 days, until the feast of Pentecost (May 26 & 27).
