TWENTY-EIGHTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Oct. 14, 2007

In the Gospel the leper who turned back to thank Jesus can serve as a model for us in prayer. Even at those times when praying seems difficult or when the "right" words elude us, we can always offer a simple prayer of thanks. Even on the worst of days, a few moments of reflection will reveal to us examples of God's healing presence in our life. There is always something for which to be thankful - even if it is only the grace of having made it through another day.
