TWENTY-SECOND SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sept. 2, 2007

Jesus is dining with lawyers & Pharisees on the Sabbath. They scrutinize him closely, waiting for him to break the Law. Jesus challenges them, pointing to their false sense of superiority, their arrogant assumption of privilege & their automatic exclusion of those in need. We can hear Jesus challenging us today, in our homes, offices & parishes, to yield the spotlight to others and make room in our lives for the poor. Will we choose God, or will we choose the values of this world?
