TWENTY-THIRD SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Sept. 9, 2007

Using two comparisons, the man building a tower and the king going into battle, Jesus points out the prudence & wisdom needed to decide to be a disciple. We must be willing to put God first. This means that our love for God must be greater than our love for any human person or our love for any precious possessions. A disciple may not be called to give up everything to serve God, but the disciple must be willing to give up all for God.
